

HAYNES® HR-160® alloy

Waste Incineration Environments

Incineration of municipal, industrial and hazardous wastes generates very corrosive environments which typically contain such corrosive constituents as SO<sub>2</sub>, HCl and sometimes HF, along with vapors/deposits of chlorides and sulfates. The following examples demonstrate the relative improvements resulting from upgrading to HR-160® alloy.

