Mr. Clark:

Thank you very much for your cooperation during the on-site audit Cessna Aircraft Company conducted at your facility on April 13, 2006. During this audit your process for ultrasonic testing was reviewed.

Based upon the results of the audit conducted at your facility and the corrective actions that were submitted by you, Cessna's Quality organization has approved Haynes Intl High Temp Alloys to perform ultrasonic testing of wrought metal products in accordance with Cessna Engineering Specification CSTI006.

Thank you again for your cooperation.

Sincerely,
